Dear Dr Dorstyn

ETHICS APPROVAL No: H-2019-050
PROJECT TITLE: Preliminary evaluation of a return-to-work assessment and counselling service for injured job-seekers living in the community

The ethics application for the above project has been reviewed by the Human Research Ethics Committee and is deemed to meet the requirements of the National Statement on Ethical Conduct in Human Research 2007 (Updated 2018).

You are authorised to commence your research on: 10/04/2019
The ethics expiry date for this project is: 30/04/2022

NAMED INVESTIGATORS:

Chief Investigator: Dr Diana Dorstyn
Associate Investigator: Associate Professor Rachel Roberts
Associate Investigator: Professor Anna Chur-Hansen
Associate Investigator: Mr Peter Stewart
Associate Investigator: Ashley Craig
Associate Investigator: Professor Ian Kneebone
Associate Investigator: Mr Gregory Murphy

CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL: Thank you for your considered responses to the matters raised. The revised application provided on 10/04/19 has been approved.

Ethics approval is granted for three years and is subject to satisfactory annual reporting. The form titled Annual Report on Project Status is to be used when reporting annual progress and project completion and can be downloaded at <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/research-services/oreci/human/reporting/>. Prior to expiry, ethics approval may be extended for a further period.

Participants in the study are to be given a copy of the information sheet and the signed consent form to retain. It is also a condition of approval that you immediately report anything which might warrant review of ethical approval including:

- serious or unexpected adverse effects on participants,
- previously unforeseen events which might affect continued ethical acceptability of the project,
- proposed changes to the protocol or project investigators; and
- the project is discontinued before the expected date of completion.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Paul Delfabbro
Convenor
